Technology Values Too:

Whether you need a simple switch, a full server setup, or the best networking solution for your operation, did you know that Office Depot - the same partner you already trust to deliver your business essentials - is also your leading IT resource?

More Value Than Any Other Reseller:

Thanks to Tech Depot, an Office Depot company, and one of the nation's leading technology resellers, you're assured instant access to $10 billion in inventory, including the industry's top-selling items, plus just-released, rare, and end-of-life products not available anywhere else:

- 100,000 different products from the world's leading manufacturers, from the most popular laptop and PDA brands to the hardest-to-find networking technology
- Priced right and delivered to you fast, (most within 24 business hours!)
- Paired with experienced technical support to guide you in the right IT decisions for your business.

Enjoy 5 Key Advantages With Every Office Depot Technology Purchase:

1. Big Selection: Over 100,000 technology items, including security solutions, memory, servers, switches and routers, networking configurations, hard drives, monitors, printers, scanners, software, and more...including the hard-to-find items.
2. Competitive Prices: Superstore pricing that goes head-to-head against the biggest players in the technology industry.
3. Fast Delivery: Most items at your door within 24 business hours
4. Technical Expertise: Experienced, knowledgeable guidance before, during, and after the sale
5. Total Team Advantage: The same attentive, personal service you already enjoy from your Office Depot account manager, now paired with in-depth technical expertise of our Tech Depot specialists. This unique team advantage saves you more time, money and hassles during your next technology purchase.
