When it comes to winter fun... The Sky's the Limit!

Sure Atlantic City is known for summer beach fun, but did you know its best-kept secret? It's great in winter, too! That's when savvy vacationers and locals score those premium "A" show tickets; gain access to the hottest eateries and nightclubs without long lines; and enjoy lower gaming prices — all perks summer visitors never see.

And all of this is just footsteps or a short cab ride away when you stay at one of our newest resorts, Fairfield Atlantic City at Skyline Tower, adjacent to the Trump Taj Mahal and just one block from the world-famous Boardwalk. Owners really love this 33-story resort and often say that the décor and ambiance mirror the same luxury standards they've found at famous 4-star hotels.

Skyline's eye appeal is just the start — the entire sixth floor of this resort is dedicated to your entertainment pleasure, including all-season indoor pool, full workout facility, Pilates, tanning booths and lots of activities for adults and kids. Book a soothing massage or jump into Texas Hold 'em games, pool tournaments, Salsa dancing and more!

Step outside and just watch the fun intensify: a tantalizing array of casinos is all within easy walking distance, from Showboat's down-home spirit and warmth to top performers at the Borgata and the jaw-dropping opulence of Trump Taj Mahal, with its jeweled ceilings and hand-strung Austrian crystal chandeliers.

Nightlife? Incredible! Shows this winter include "Catch a Rising Star" at Resorts, "Legends in Concert" at Bally's and "The Music Box" at Borgata. Don't miss The Quarter at Tropicana, a new dining, shopping and entertainment mecca with Old Havana feel. Groove to old-school R&B with Sounds of Philadelphia; learn sultry samba at Cuba Libre; check out the amazing ice bar at Russian-themed Red Square; or laugh at Comedy Stop.

Dining in Atlantic City is always a sure bet, whether it's old-fashioned supper clubs, timeless boardwalk treats like hot dogs, salt water taffy and ice cream, or ethnic cuisine. Savor pure continental pleasures at Capriccio inside Resorts. This regal spot with its tuxedo-clad staff and extraordinary menu is almost impossible to book during high season!

Work off dinner with a romantic boardwalk stroll or do some serious shopping. You'll find wonderful shops like Cache, Brooks Brothers, White House and Houdini plus more at The Quarter. Outlet shoppers will enjoy big bargains nearby at The Walk.

Here's more of what's in store this winter. December: Resort holiday party for owners and holiday-themed kids' programs. January: Parents, take advantage of "New Year's Eve Kid's Night Out" — a supervised resort event that watches kids while parents enjoy romantic New Year's Eve on the town. February/March: Special massage savings and sweet treats on Valentine's Day; Pool Olympics; and kids' games on President's Weekend.

The secret's out — the sky's the limit when it comes to a fabulous winter vacation at Skyline Tower. Don't miss it!
